

Bob Blizinski has been a HR professional for the past 30 years. During this time Bob has worked in both the private and public sectors, including 4 year institutions, private liberal arts colleges and community colleges. His experience includes all areas of HR however his expertise is in labor relations, talent acquisition, leadership development and performance management.