

Irma Ramos Bio

Vice Chancellor of Human Resources, North Orange County Community College District

Irma has worked for over 30 years in California's higher education system with some of her former roles being Vice President of Human Resources at Mt. San Jacinto Community College District, Associate Vice President of Human Resources at Long Beach City College, and Dean of Student Affairs at DeVry University.

Irma has served on numerous local and statewide organizations, both as a member and in leadership roles. She currently serves as member of the Chancellor's Statewide Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Implementation Workgroup. Some of her former roles include President of the Association of Chief Human Resources Officers for the California community college system, member of the Community College League of CA Advisory Committee on Legislation, and Chancellor's Statewide Equal Employment Opportunity/Diversity Advisory Committee.