

Mr. Erickson is the owner and principal attorney in Erickson Law Firm A.P.C. He has been an attorney for twenty-eight years, and for the last twenty-one years has exclusively represented community college districts, school districts, and other educational institutions in a wide variety of legal issues involving all aspects of public school and education law. During this time, he has been the lead negotiator in collective bargaining with both classified and faculty employee unions at more than 50 bargaining tables.